Dear Ed: TED:

I read with the greatest pleasure and satisfaction this morning that you were taking over a vital, important job in the Defense Department. I look forward to seeing you here soon, and want to assure you that any facilities we may have here are at your disposal.

I would assume that in developing our own nation's air capabilities, you would also be interested in what our most formidable competitor is doing, and that today is at the top of our intelligence priorities.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
